

Trinity Engineering is seeking an Entry Level Civil-Environmental Engineering Technician who is interested in starting their career in a fast paced and growing company. The ideal candidate will be passionate about civil and environmental engineering, have excellent communication skills, a positive attitude, a strong desire to learn and a be highly motivated to serve our clients. Trinity will provide a significant amount of training and support to the successful candidate.

Responsibilities:

- Perc testing and design of wastewater and municipal sewer systems.
- Design, permitting and testing of potable and municipal water systems.
- Design or evaluation of site grading, construction layout, hydrology and hydraulics, and erosion and sedimentation control.
- Design and permitting of proposed stormwater drainage systems including design of Stormwater Best Management Practices (BMPs).

Qualifications:

- Experience with Autodesk Civil 3D preferred.
- Experience with GPS and Total Station operation preferred.
- Ability to work in a team environment.
- Must have a valid driver's license and a safe driving record.

Compensation and Benefits:

- Rate of Pay: Commensurate with skills and experience.
- Benefits: Health Insurance available.
- Individual Retirement Account with matching company contributions.
- Quarterly Bonus program.
- Paid Time Off.